Griffin Thinks Viet War Not Political Issue

LANSING (AP) — The trial and sentencing of U.S. airmen by North Viet Nam could lead to a public demand for "all out war," U.S. Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., said Friday.

If Hanoi carried through on its threats to try captured Americans as war criminals, he said in response to questions at a news conference, "I think the reaction on the part of the American public would be very great — maybe even to a demand for all out war."

But, short of that, he said he hesitated to call Viet Nam an election campaign issue.

"It's a subject of great concern and overwhelming concern...but I don't think the on a purely political basis," he added.

Griffin is running unopposed in the Republican primary, while former Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh fight for the Democratic nomination for the Senate seat now held by the former Traverse City congressman.

A newspaper poll showing him ahead of Cavanagh and trailing Williams by only one percentage point "bears out our readings of voter sentiment," Griffin said.

Fulbright Blast Gets Tart Reply

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J.W. Fulbright has launched a new attack on the administration's Asian policy—and received a tart reply from the White House which reported President Johnson was "disappointed" in the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Inconsistent, disappointing and difficult to follow was the way White House press secretary Bill Moyers described Fulbright's argument in a renewal of the Fulbright-Johnson dispute over American commitments to Asia.

The latest exchange was triggered when Fulbright told the Senate Friday that statements by Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey revealed an "emerging 'Asian Doctrine'" under which "the United States is taking on the role of policeman and provider for all of non-Communist Asia."

In a remark that obviously rankled the White House, the Arkansas Democrat declared: "I think it extremely important that the Senate, which used to be asked for its advice and consent on major foreign commitments, consider some of the sweeping implications of the 'Asian Doctrine' before it becomes an irrevocable national commitment undertaken without the consent or even the knowledge of the Senate."

As a possible measure of Johnson's irritation, the White House response to Fulbright was the one of longest and strongest yet made to a member of Congress.

The President, said Moyers, "is disappointed that Sen. Fulbright's speech made allegations about irrevocable national commitments the speech does not contain."

U.S. Infantry Batters Cong In Fast Action

SAIGON. South Viet Nam (AP) — Helicopter-borne U.S. infantrymen pounded an entrenched Viet Cong force only 25 miles from Saigon today and overran the enemy bunkers in what a spokesman called "fast and furious action."

To the north, U.S. Marines fighting in mountain jungles just south of the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam reported killing 55 more North Vietnamese regulars to raise the number of enemy dead to 576 in eight days of hard fighting.

Over North Viet Nam, U.S. Air Force Thunderchiefs tangled with Communist MIG-17s in a fruitless one-minute exchange of fire during renewed raids on oil depots, railroads, barges and bridges.

The U.S. command announced that Australian troops had kicked off on a new clearing operation 38 miles southeast of Saigon and that the first small contingent of Thailand servicemen has arrived in the country.

The U.S. command also reported that a Navy A4 Skyhawk fighter-bomber from the carrier Oriskany was shot down over North Viet Nam today, the 396th plane lost in the air war over the north. The pilot bailed out at sea and was rescued about 25 miles north of Vinh.

In the fighting 25 miles north of Saigon, several battalions of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division struck this afternoon against a dug-in Viet Cong force in the Ong Dong jungles.

The infantrymen, lifted into the area by helicopters, overran enemy bunkers almost at once. A spokesman said American casualties in the initial stages were light. He said the Communist losses were not yet reported but the infantrymen captured quantities of machine guns and ammunition.

At last report toward dark, the GIs were still in contact with the Viet Cong.

Fugitive Ross Eludes Police At Carthage, Mo.

CARTHAGE, Mo. (AP) — Officers today abandoned a concentrated search for Robert Duane Ross, 35, one of two men who escaped from a Superior, Wis., jail July 4.

He and his companion were stopped after a break-in Thursday night at the Carthage, Mo. High School.

Ross pulled a gun on the officers and fled into a nearby wooded area.

The Missouri highway patrol said he was being held on a bank robbery charge in Wisconsin.

His companion, Jerome O'Neill, 24, who was being held in Superior on a traffic violation, waived a hearing for return to Wisconsin. The highway patrol said the two were driving a car reported stolen at Flint, Mich.

Ross is a suspect in the recent robbery of the Bark River State Bank by three men. He had been arrested in connection with the Bark River Bank robbery and was being held in the Superior, Wis., jail when he escaped.

Red China's Leaders Reject Peace Moves

Strikers And Airlines Agree It's A Sad Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — Airline strike talks remained earth-bound today. As the 16-day walkout piled up multimillion-dollar losses in wages and profits, negotiators could agree only that "it's a sad day."

Federal efforts to win a settlement and a proposal in Congress for the government to take over the five strikebound airlines did nothing to soften the deadlock. Negotiations resume at midmorning.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., introduced legislation to declare a national emergency under which federal courts could order the strikers back to work and let the government run the airlines until the dispute is settled.

After Morse presented his proposal to the Senate Friday, chief airline negotiator William J. Curtin said, "It's a sad day when representatives of the American public are forced by the action of an irresponsible union to consider legislating collective bargaining."

President P.L. (Roy) Siemiller of the striking AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists said the Morse proposal only worsened prospects for a settlement soon.

"It is a sad day when corporate management refuses to live up to its responsibilities to share a small portion of its abundant profits with the employees who helped build the industry," he said.

Speck Fit For Trial - Doctors

CHICAGO (AP) — Doctors say the man accused of slaying eight student nurses has not suffered a heart attack and will be able to go on trial.

Richard Speck, 24, has pericarditis—an inflammation of the sac surrounding the heart—and "is doing quite well," Dr. Sheldon Siodki, cardiologist at the Cermak Memorial (Bridwell) Hospital in the city jail, told a news conference Friday.

Doctors had said when Speck became ill several days ago that there was an 80 per cent chance he had suffered a heart attack.

Speck, ex-convict and itinerant seaman born in Monmouth, Ill., and reared in Dallas, Tex., is charged with murdering Gloria Jean Davy, 22, of Dyer, Ind., one of eight South Chicago Community Hospital nurses and nursing students strangled and stabbed to death July 14 in the far South Side townhouse where they lived.

Prosecutors say he has not been officially charged with the other slayings for technical reasons.

Speck, who earlier this week ordered 3,000 troops into the four central Luzon provinces to flush out a band of guerrillas who killed six people in the past few days, said the Communist threat was "now quite apparent within the Philippines."

Sixty-two mayors, local officials and former rebels who refused to collaborate with the resurgent guerrilla movement have been liquidated in the past few months, he said.

Red extortion tactics in wide areas of Nueva Ecija, Pampanga, Tarlac and Bulacan provinces have affected the agricultural development of the area.

The 48-year-old president said the renewed Communist activity was a "sharp and violent reaction" by the Communists to the Philippine decision to send troops to South Viet Nam.

It was a "manifestation, not only of local Communists, but of international designs," he said.

"My feeling is that these are sporadic, weak and will not last under the massive scale of development of the rural areas which we have planned and are now implementing," he said.

McNamara was to have stopped in West Germany before hand for talks with Bonn officials, but that trip was canceled because of McNamara's injury, a bone chip in the foot.

Johnson Visions New Aggressions If Reds Manage Viet Victory

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — President Johnson said today a Communist victory in Viet Nam "would inspire new aggression in the rest of the world" while an American success might put an end to wars forever.

Johnson, visiting Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky, was seeking broadened support for his Viet Nam policies and approval from voters who will be electing Congress members in November.

In a speech prepared for delivery at Monument Circle in the heart of downtown Indianapolis, Johnson pictured the fighting in Southeast Asia as a test which will determine whether aggression and guerrilla warfare will engulf Africa and Latin America as well as that part of the world.

British-Indian Moscow Visits Are Denounced

TOKYO (AP) — Red China's leaders spelled out in harsh words at a mammoth Peking rally Friday the only end they see to the war in Viet Nam — total Communist victory, possibly with Chinese intervention.

Speaking to a throng estimated by Japanese correspondents on the scene at nearly one million, President Liu Shao-chi declared:

"To fight on, to fight through to the end, to fight until the U.S. aggressors are totally and completely driven out of Viet Nam and final victory is won — this is the powerful answer of the Vietnamese people to the U.S. imperialist act of escalating its war of aggression to a new and still graver stage."

Asserting that "aggression against Viet Nam is aggression against China," Liu said "the Chinese people have made every preparation to take such actions at any time and in any place as the Chinese and Vietnamese people deem necessary for dealing joint blows at the U.S. aggressors."

Some observers said the statement appeared to go a step further than previous declarations of support by China. In the past, it had been stressed that China would act if asked to do so by Hanoi.

Geneva Denounced

Liu and the other speakers, according to Radio Peking broadcasts heard here, made clear that even a halt in U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam would not draw the Communists to the conference table — as far as Peking is concerned.

Revening of the Geneva conference was completely ruled out as an "out-and-out criminal action."

Peace efforts by British Prime Minister Harold Wilson and Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in recent trips to Moscow were denounced — as well as the Soviet leaders.

Peking also declared itself completely freed of all restrictions and limitations imposed by the 1954 Geneva conference on Indochina, and said the agreements "are already nonexistent."

Liu said, "We must warn the U.S. aggressors in all seriousness: do not miscalculate and do not misjudge your opponents."

China Ready

He said China was "ready to undertake the greatest national sacrifices" and no longer was restricted by the demarcation line between North and South Viet Nam in giving aid to the Vietnamese people.

"The 700 million Chinese people provide a powerful backing for the Vietnamese people," he declared. "The vast expanse of China's territory is the reliable rear area of the Vietnamese people."

Vice Premier Tao Chu, who recently was named party propaganda chief, told the rally:

"As everyone knows, the core of the Viet Nam question at present is absolutely not a matter of merely stopping the bombing of the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam. To lay one-sided stress on the stopping of bombing is precisely to cater to the needs of the U.S. imperialist policy of blackmail."

He also attacked the 1954 Geneva agreements on Viet Nam and said "whoever still attempts to use the Geneva agreements to tie the hands of the Vietnamese people, the Chinese people and the revolutionary people of the world will never succeed."

Second Is No. 1

AMERICAN STREET

DETROIT (AP) — Second Street is the No. 1 street in America, says R. L. Polk & Co.

Polk, publisher of directories for 6,500 cities in the United States, made computer tabulations showing Second is the most common street name.

And, if it isn't confusing enough that Second ranks first, Polk says Park is second.

Third is third. Fourth is fourth among most common names. Fifth is fifth.

School Reorganization Election Set Monday

How much interest Delta and Schoolcraft County voters have in their school systems will be displayed Monday when electors in both counties go to the polls to ballot on four proposals which, if approved, will produce sweeping changes in school structuring.

If all four are approved, 19 existing school districts would consolidate into four.

The campaign, despite the usually hot rural vs. city element, has been remarkable because of its absence.

Voters in both counties appear more confused than intelligent.

The election was ordered by the Delta-Schoolcraft Intermediate Board of Education after a reorganization proposal by a study committee was approved by the State Dept. of Public Instruction. The study committee was formed in compliance with the State School Reorganization Act of 1964, which charged Intermediate districts with the responsibility of changing districts to provide a minimum of 2,000 enrollment and a high school in every district.

Districts Listed

Though one of the proposed districts in this election still will not enroll the required 2,000 students, it was accepted by the State because of geographic factors involved.

The four proposed districts are:

- Escanaba Area and Bark River-Harris;
- Gladstone, Flat Rock, Brampton, Rapid River, Rock and Perkins;
- Cooks, Garden, Fairbanks and Nahma;
- Manistique, Thompson, Hiawatha, Fairview, Doyle, Mueller and Germfask.

State law provides in the joining of two or more high school districts, an interim Board of Education be appointed by the Intermediate School Board to serve until a new Board of Education can be elected.

If the proposals are approved, this law would apply to all but the Manistique district.

Voters will ballot by proposed district. A simple majority in each district is needed for passage. Polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 8 p. m. All registered voters are eligible.

Part of the confusion among voters undoubtedly arises because of the lack of information provided by the Intermediate Board of Education and school districts involved.

The Escanaba Area Board of Education has opposed the election with Bark River, Bark River-Harris, educators, however, favor it.

Millage In Question

"Reorganization at this time would bankrupt the school district," said one member of the Escanaba Area Board of Education.

"We would only have until Sept. 1 to hold an election and revote 7.5 mills of extra voted operating millage. If the vote failed, we couldn't get that millage on this year's tax rolls. It would bankrupt the district." The 7.5 mills currently levied in the district produces nearly $490,000 on the school district's valuation—about one quarter of the district's budget.

Escanaba educators also are concerned about the influx of Bark River-Harris high school students, which could crowd the new high school to maximum capacity. The district anticipates about 1,350 high school enrollment this fall and an additional 150 from Bark River would push the total to near 1,500, the rated maximum.

Bark River-Harris, which twice in the past rejected proposals to join with the Escanaba Area school system, contends the move would be best for all children involved.

Manistique Favors

In addition, the University of Michigan accreditation committee has indicated it will take accreditation away from the Bark River-Harris district unless its high school program is improved. Under the reorganization plan, Bark River high school students would come to Escanaba, which because of its size is able to offer a broader, more varied program of instruction.

The Manistique Board of Education, which already accepts high school students from the districts involved, favors the proposal as merely a firming up of an existing situation.

In the Cooks, Garden, Fairbanks and Nahma election, the Garden Board of Education has endorsed a "Yes" vote.

The Gladstone situation is different.

Although many educators in the area believe some sort of reorganization is coming, none are willing to concede that the current plan is the best one. The proposal has been coolly received in most of the communities involved with the feeling that more study is needed before such a final step is taken.

Parking Meters Kept Repaired

"I put a penny in the meter and there must be something wrong with it," said the lady accusingly to the police officer at the desk.

"I'm sure I wasn't in the store more than 10 minutes—and now I've got a parking ticket to pay!"

The officer promises to have the meter checked. Yes, he agrees, sometimes parking meters do get out of whack. No, she won't have to pay. Her ticket will just be marked "void."

Well, sometimes meters do need repair—but they are getting it, says Escanaba City Manager George Harvey.

"A while back we were informed by the Department of Agriculture that they had received a complaint from a citizen that our parking meters are not giving full value for money deposited," he reported.

"They made an extensive study of the parking meters, checking each meter, and found that the meter about which the citizen had complained was giving more time than was paid for."

"They also found that about 60 per cent of our meters are giving more time than is being paid for."

"A small percentage was not giving full value. We therefore have been going through all of the meters and checking to see if they are working properly. By the end of the week we will have completed this job and all of the meters will be in A-1 condition," the city manager advised the City Council.

"This is not the first time the meters have been checked. At least once a year we deposit pennies, dimes and nickels in all of the meters in Escanaba to see if the public is getting full value for its money. We do not expect the meters to stay in A-1 condition, and therefore check them periodically and make repairs wherever necessary," Harvey said.

Education has stayed away from campaigning.

EL SEGUNDO, Calif. (AP)—North American aviation says it will build an experimental ocean submarine capable of diving to 2,000 feet. The 20-foot craft will be used for rescue and salvage operations as well as experiments, a spokesman said.

City Controller Test Scheduled

An examination for the position of Escanaba city controller is scheduled for Saturday, July 30, at Bay de Noc Community College. It is reported by City Manager George Harvey.

The city controller position has been vacant since the resignation of Frank Bourke, who resigned to accept employment with Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

There are presently 10 applicants under consideration and notices have been sent to each as to the time and place of the examination, Harvey reported.

Bye Bye Townships?

The reaction of many township and county government officials to the recent suggestions for change in these forms of government indicate a rather general feeling that it is a plot hatched in Washington to do away with these old and familiar forms of local government.

But some of the most severe critics of local government today are not federal officials, but political scientists and others outside of the federal government.

One such group is the Committee for Economic Development. It is an independent group headed by Theodore O. Yntema of Michigan, former chairman of the finance committee of Ford Motor Co. The Committee has just completed a study of local government which was financed by several foundations, including the Carnegie, Kellogg and Rockefeller.

It's report should be studied by every local government official, and, perhaps even more importantly, by the citizens who will decide whether we should keep our thousands and thousands of little governments. The local officials seem loath to abolish their jobs. The public may have to push for the changes that are recommended. The first big help in the process has been the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote ruling which is transferring the control of government from the rural areas to the cities, where the people live.

The Committee for Economic Development says that unless 80 per cent of the 80,000 local governments in the nation are abolished, the federal government may overpower every nook and corner of the country.

CED says that in 1962 every metropolitan area in the country had an average of 87 local governments. Chicago had even more, 1,060.

These included townships, villages, municipalities, school districts, drainage districts, sewage districts, etc.

Previous studies, says CED, have shown that "local governments cannot do a decent planning job, and cannot be effective because of the fragmentation of government."

The costs of local government are rising disastrously. It increased 124 per cent in the 10 years before 1962 and will double again by 1972.

The CED study found that economic development of most communities "is frustrated by want of government power. Local units depend too heavily on the property tax, administration of which is generally so inequitable as to be scandalous."

"The nation's courthouses and city halls have often seemed to lack the vision and dedication—as well as the financial resources—to diagnose conditions, devise solutions, and make vigorous responses. Cast in an archaic mold, unable to cope with new issues, many—if not most—local governments are centers of strenuous resistance to change of any kind."

The only way to solve the problem, says CED, is to consolidate units and eliminate needless layers of government. It would do away with townships entirely, along with most types of special districts. Each local unit—after consolidation—should have a single chief executive, appointed or elected, with all departments and personnel fully responsible to him. Contrast this suggestion with county government in the Upper Peninsula today. It elects many officials responsible to no one and it is headless.

CED would have counties take over the functions of township government, and it suggests that most of the 11,000 non-metropolitan villages with fewer than 2,500 residents should be disincorporated and let the county administer their services.

It says consolidation of school districts should be continued until every unified school system in the country has at least 1,500 students, and then, wherever possible, the districts should be administered by the consolidated counties. Once they're restructured, county governments should be given power to cooperate with other counties, even across state lines.

What's being proposed is a structure of government to serve the needs of the people today. That's what was done when our present forms were created after the Civil War, but there have been a lot of changes in living since then and virtually none in government. It limps and waddles and falters as it confronts change and then it finds itself ill-suited to cope with modern problems so it fights change. But change is inexorable and local government will change. Its ever-increasing expense will sign the death warrant for its old forms.

Finding The Way

To Make 'Brown Bread' Palatable

By RALPH W. LOEW, D. D.

The waiter in the Boston all-in-one restaurant had just delivered the meal to the young man he had lived close to death, watched his fellow prisoners being taken away, and existed each day just a notch above starvation. Almost his only diet for years had been a harsh black bread, composed of very little bran or nourishment. The brown bread became the symbol of his hatred. Now, having survived these experiences, and living in the freedom of a new land, he was suddenly overwhelmed by his obsession.

Reading of the incident only confirms the truism that most of us have "brown breads." It is astonishing to see the way in which polite people can suddenly spew out violent words or choke their neighbors by thoughts and words. Look at the various extremist groups that spring up around the nation.

Here are men and women of various abilities, who react with violence or over-emotion-

Beetle Infection Feared

The cereal leaf beetle identified in 1962 in Berrien County downstate has not been contained. It is spreading rapidly and this summer has been found in the northern Lower Peninsula. The State Department of Agriculture has extended the quarantine areas to include the entire Lower Peninsula.

We hope that the water barrier between the two peninsulas will prevent its movement to the Upper Peninsula. We are mindful however, that it can hitchhike across "Big Mac" on trucks. Every attempt will be made to keep straw and grain from moving North unless it was first treated to kill the insect. We are wondering now if anything might have come in with surplus grain. The cereal leaf beetle is also found in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

Research efforts to find control measures for this beetle are being cooperatively pursued by scientists from Michigan State University, the USDA, Purdue University, and Ohio State University. Encouraging results have been found in the research areas of chemical control, host plant resistance, and control by predators and parasites.

Two relatively safe insecticides, Malathion and Sevin (Carbaryl), have given good chemical control of both the adult and larval stages. The best time to treat CLB-infested small grains is when many young larvae are found. Oats will be the crop most likely to need spraying, although winter wheat fields are occasionally severely damaged also. Sources of resistance to the beetle have been found in wheat, barley, and oats. The resistance in wheat involves the pubescence (hairiness) of the leaf surfaces. Short, stiff, and dense pubescence helps the wheat resist the beetle by making the leaf surface undesirable for the female to lay her eggs, causes the eggs laid to desiccate more easily, and inhibits the feeding of the young larvae. Resistance in barley and oats seems to involve non-preference for oviposition, due to factors other than pubescence, and tolerance. Breeding programs to incorporate resistance into commercial varieties to the cereal leaf beetle can be expected in 6 to 8 years.

The results from studies on the effect of a small parasitic wasp common to Europe are promising. The female wasps are very selective in choosing the cereal leaf beetle eggs to oviposit in, and the infested eggs do not hatch.

Nader Slaps At Safety Council

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ralph Nader and the National Safety Council gave each other the back of their hands Friday on the question of what to do about safer automobiles.

Nader, crusader for "crashworthy" cars, said the council is dominated by the auto industry, that it has never criticized a single model of automobile, not even "the outrageous dagger fins of the late 1950s."

Now that federal legislation is being passed to set safety standards for auto design, he said, "the mother hen of traffic safety can go back to its coop; the action has moved elsewhere."

Mother hen was his derisive term for the safety council. The council replied that such charges are ridiculous and false. It said it gets only 4 per cent of its income from the auto industry and that Nader has never made any effort to familiarize himself with the council's record.

'Instant Affluence!'

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

CHICAGO (NEA) — The bitter, destructive riots on Chicago's West Side produced the inevitable, sober-sided conferences between city officials and top Negro leaders.

After the meetings, there were vague promises of faster action on better jobs, education and housing for Negroes. Mayor Richard Daley pledged more recreation space for the afflicted area, and sprinkler systems for the fire hydrants, whose illegal tapping on a sweltering day had touched off the riots. A committee study of police and community relations was announced.

Yet neither Daley nor the circuit-riding Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. nor Chicago civil rights leader Albert Raby dealt with some of the deepest aspects of this minor civil war. They are seldom mentioned anywhere.

As they pertain to the specific self-defeating Negro attitudes and behavior in distressed areas, comment will be reserved for later. Here, hard attention needs to be paid first to the effect of America's flooding affluence on the millions of disadvantaged Negroes.

Five years ago it suddenly became fashionable to talk of the "invisible poor." But from the viewpoint of the poor, the important thing is not that they are unseen but that the affluent world around them—so close highly visible to them—so close within reach and yet so unattainable.

We live in a society which almost literally tries to cram affluence down the citizen's throat. Television, radio and other media shout to him how easy, how cheap it is to have and to use everything under the sun. Self-help markets and shops spill over with goods handy to the touch.

Affluence is portrayed widely as the normal condition for the American family. Only a fool would imagine that millions of Americans, Negroes and others, would today rest content with having less than what they are daily told is normal.

This constantly enlarging stress on material well-being, advanced at obvious cost to human values, lies at the root of Negro impatience—which is really the governing factor here in Chicago. In Watts, in Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant section and many another urban ghetto.

It is silly to argue that Negroes are impatient because they have waited 100 years for the fulfillment of their rights. Most of the militant protesters have been on this earth less than a quarter of that time. They know the struggles of the past only by hearsay.

What they do know firsthand is the richness of American life visible in gleaming automobiles passing down their streets, in the beckoning cornucopia of the markets, in handsome new houses and high-rise apartments.

The housing they see in the suburbs and in refurbished sections of central cities only compounds their frustration. For Negroes have inherited the core of central cities which, in their original make-up, probably have always been too crowded to be truly livable places. And today those cores are badly deteriorated, even as Negroes move in.

Worse still, these central cities now stand out as never before in painful contrast to the swelling, prosperous suburbs—the image of the new and the desirable, where space and greenness are tangible things. It is not simply that Negroes need "better housing." Chicago, ironically, is noted by building code specialists as having one of the best and toughest building inspection and code enforcement setups in the nation. It is vastly superior, for example, to New York City's.

What Negroes want is what the suburbs connote in every way. They represent not just the reality of better housing but the symbol of a whole new way of life, the equal of that suggested on their 21-inch screens as proper for every-

All the basic things the Negroes want take time. But, as Chicago's West Side shows, they are no longer willing to give time. No white or Negro leader seems close to reconciling their call for "instant affluence" with the harsh reality of slow change which so long has governed this society.

Feeder Cattle Sales Are Down

LANSING (AP) — Michigan feedlots are expected to market 60,000 head of cattle in the July-September period, down 6,000 head from the same period one year ago, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service says.

The service said Michigan farmers had 108,000 head on feed July 1, down seasonally from last quarter's 160,000 and down 2,000 from July 1, 1965. Placements during April through June totaled 18,000 head, the lowest since 1961. This is down 4,000 from 1965. Marketings during the April-June quarter from Michigan feedlots totaled 70,000 head, the highest since records began. The total was up 11,000 head over the same period in 1965 and up 32,000 head from the previous quarter this year.

Ann Landers Do-Gooders Zest Not For Family

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a teen-ager who wants to comment on that letter from "Mom" whose strong-willed daughter was dating a boy from the "wrong side of the tracks" as she put it. When "Mom" asked you what to do with "the stubborn brat" I knew right then that it was a hopeless case.

Why don't parents realize that fighting with their kids never accomplished anything? It only makes kids more determined to have their own way. There must be love and respect on BOTH sides. If parents want their children to respect them, they must respect their children. Yelling, hitting and name-calling does not generate much respect from anybody.

Last year I dated a boy my folks didn't like very well. They never told me I COULD NOT go with him. They were polite and pleasant and pretty soon I understood why my folks didn't care much for the boy. I stopped going with him on my own.

I hope you will write up this letter better so it will be good enough to print. It's very important to us teen-agers to get our side represented. Thank you. — NORMAL

Dear Normal: I wouldn't change a word of your letter. It is fine just as you wrote it. It is worth noting that children talk to their parents in the same way their parents talk to them — even the tone of voice is the same. Respect, consideration, and love is always a two-way proposition.

When we old fogies say it, it sounds square but coming from a teen — well, that's a different bucket of bolts, Toots. Thanks for writing.

Dear Ann: Why would the father of a fine family be so interested in civic and charitable causes that he neglects his wife and children to the point where they feel abandoned?

I know several men who fit into this category. They are admired by everyone (except their families) for their selfless dedication and service to humanity.

By now you surely have guessed that I am married to such a man. Perhaps if I understood WHY he is this way I could stop feeling sorry for myself. Please help. — EXCESS BAGGAGE

Dear Excess: Men (and women, too) who devote all their extra time and energy to outside activities, at the expense of family life, are actually running away from those closest to them because they are more comfortable with strangers. It's much easier to be a hero to non-relatives, you know.

Husbands and wives, fathers and sons, and mothers and daughters who work TOGETHER on community and church projects enrich not only the community but their family's lives as well.

Confidential to Marriage
Gone Sour: Would you use tear gas to rid the house of mice? Well, this makes about as much sense. Leaving a husband of four months because he forgot to call to say he wasn't coming home to dinner is just plain childish. It's too bad your folks told you, "the door is always open." Go back to your husband where you belong.

When necking becomes petting, watch out! To learn how the smart girl keeps both her dignity and her boy friend, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting — And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Students Busy With Work-Study

Reject Plea To Light Falls

There'll be no colored spotlights on Tahquamenon Falls if the Michigan Conservation Commission can help it.

A request that the trail to the upper falls in Tahquamenon State Park be lighted was received by the commission from Ralph Fuller of Newberry, a member of the Michigan Tourist Council. The request recalled an earlier one from Newberry business interests that the falls be illuminated with colored spotlights, which stirred remarks about "another Niagara."

"To light the trail would be pointless unless we light the falls, and this would destroy the natural beauty people come to see," said Glenn Gregg, newly appointed deputy director of the department in charge of parks and recreation and former Upper Peninsula regional manager for the department at Marquette.

"As for helping the tourist business, we think the falls are helping, because more than 300,000 persons came to see them last year alone, and that's the greatest percentage increase ever. Apparently, people like the falls the way they are."

"As for safety, installation of lights along the trail would encourage nighttime visits and actually increase the danger, because you can't light all the shadows along a wooded trail. There have been only two accidents in the history of the falls state park, one when a boy wading along the top of the falls in broad daylight slipped off and the other when a man went through the guard fence to take a picture."

In May the commission received a request for approval to construct a 135-foot observation tower on privately owned land a half mile from the lower falls of the Tahquamenon by a group of business people in Paradise in Chippewa County. They said they wanted to "fit it into the department's plans and avoid the honky-tonk development which would spoil the area's scenic beauty."

They needed no approval from the commission to construct the tower on private land and didn't get it, either, because the commission didn't want to be committed.

Escanaba Leader In Peninsula

Business Gain Here Strong

The Federal Reserve Bank's report on bank debits (checks for payment on goods, services, debts, etc.) indicates that strong economic trends are influencing the business rating of Upper Peninsula cities and pushing them into new alignment.

The old order of business volume, as indicated by bank debits, was, in order: Marquette, Sault Ste. Marie, Houghton, Escanaba, Menominee, Iron Mountain-Ironwood.

Mineral industry — in both copper and iron — is in such a state of boom that it has given a new dynamism to the western Upper Peninsula which is lacking in its eastern end.

Marquette, under triple stimulation of resurgent iron mining and processing, sensational growth of Northern Michigan University and K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, has outdistanced all the other cities of the Upper Peninsula in business, as indicated by bank debits.

Marquette's June debits totaled $29.3 million of the $173 million total for the Upper Peninsula. The U.P. gain over June, 1965 was 11 per cent.

Sault Ste. Marie, hard hit by loss of industry, was neck and neck with Iron Mountain at $15.6 million each, but significantly this represented a 13 per cent gain for Iron Mountain and a one per cent loss for the Sault.

The greatest rate of gain in the Upper Peninsula was 33 per cent reported by Norway, which is thriving on operation at nearby Randville of the Hanna Co.'s Groveland Mine, and on local industry. Norway's debits totaled $4.5 million.

Among the major cities of the Upper Peninsula Calumet led with 29 per cent gain and a total of $10.7 million, reflecting the boom in the Copper Country's mining. Houghton shared this upsurge and reported 28 per cent gain and debits of $9.8 million.

Tied with Houghton for third place in rate of gain was Escanaba, but Escanaba was in second place in volume, with $22.2 million. The situation puts Escanaba in No. 1 position of U.P. growth stimulated only by industrial and business factors, unrelated to government spending.

For the 12 months through June the U.P. banks reported 12 per cent gain over the previous year, and for the January through June period of this year a gain of 14 per cent.

The new order of business volume in the U.P. in millions as indicated by June debits is: Marquette $29.3, a gain of 13 per cent; Escanaba $22.2, Sault $15.5, Iron Mountain $15.6,

Calumet $10.7, Houghton $9.8, Menominee $8.6, Ishpeming $8.2, Ironwood $7.3, Hancock $7.1, Iron River $6.9, Negaunee $5.1, Manistique $5.0, Norway $4.5, L'Anse $3.2, St. Ignace $3.2, Munising $3.0, Gladstone $2.4, Crystal Falls $2.1, Hermansville $1.0.

VOTE MONDAY, JULY 25

VOTE NO!!

The members of the Escanaba Area Public School Board of Education urge all citizens to vote in the School District Re-organization Election on Monday, July 25.

Failure to defeat this Re-organization proposal will endanger the educational opportunity for students in the Escanaba area and Bark River-Harris area, because:

1. Extro-Vated operational millage would be voided and new millage elections would have to held before Sept. 15. This could create a financial crisis in both school districts.
2. School toxes for operations would have to be increased in both school districts.
3. Escanaba Area Public High School ond Escanabo Junior High would receive building additions immediately.
4. Additional taxes for buildings would have to be voted in addition to increased operational taxes.

The Escanaba Area Board of Education urges you to vote Monday, July 25, and recommends:

Mrs. Gary W. Myers (Lee's Studio)

Joanne McGovern Bride Of Gary Walter Myers

St. Patrick's Church in Escanaba was the setting today, July 23 for the double ring ceremony uniting in marriage, Miss Joanne Marie McGovern and Gary Walter Myers of Escanaba.

Hearing the solemn exchange of vows at the nuptial mass at 11 o'clock in the morning was the Rev. Theophil Meyer OFM of Grants, N. M., an uncle of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis McGovern of 1514 3rd Ave. S., Escanaba and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Eva Myers of 414 S. 8th St., Escanaba and the late Mr. Myers.

Silk Organza
The bride chose for her wedding a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta styled with a deep scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. The fitted bodice and sleeves were trimmed with schiffli embroidery and the highrised waistline was detailed with self cord trim and bows at the side. Her waltz train of embroidery and silk organza was attached at the shoulders.

A pearlized wreath of stephanotis held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a cascading arrangement of white butterfly roses and white fugi chrysanthemums.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Gary Cavill of Milwaukee and further attending the bride were Mrs. George Sodergren of Danforth, Sharon LeMay of Marquette and Gail Myers of Rochester, Minn., a sister of the bridegroom.

Yellow Chromespun
The attendants were attired in yellow chromespun floor length gowns fashioned with fitted bodices, high rise waistlines and A-line skirts. A flowing back panel was attached to the back neckline by a single cabbage rose.

Cabbage roses of matching fabric held their bouffant veils and they carried round clusters of yellow fugi chrysanthemums and cascading ivy.

Serving as bestman was Gary Cavill of Milwaukee, brother-in-law of the bride and groomsmen were Gary Hess of Ensign, James McGovern and Michael Chaudoir of Escanaba. Seating the guests was Larry Boucher of Escanaba. Completing the wedding party was little Michael Cavill of Milwaukee, a nephew of the bride, in the role of ringbearer.

For attending her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McGovern chose a two piece mint green sheath dress of lace over taffeta with beige accessories and a corsage of lavender orchids. Mrs. Myers wore a two piece navy blue jacket dress trimmed with white lace and white accessories. She was also presented a corsage of lavender orchids.

A reception for 340 guests is being held this afternoon and evening from 4 to 8 p. m. at Marco's Starlite Room followed by dancing from 8 p. m. to 12 midnight.

Take Sun Tan In Small Doses, Doctor Advises

The subject of suntanning is one that usually stimulates wide differences of opinion.

On the one side are the sun worshippers, who insist that because some sunning is good—more must be better—and on the other side are those who condemn the practice altogether, pointing to its potential dangers, says Dr. Albert E. Heustis, director of the Michigan Department of Health.

"In reality, like many other things, the best thing to say about getting a suntan is to practice moderation. There's nothing really wrong with getting a tan as long as it's not overdone. There are, of course, a few people who have particularly sensitive skins and should avoid the practice—but this is not the general rule," he said.

"But because exposure to ultra-violet light is so potent, is no reason to condemn sun bathing altogether. Not only does a reasonable amount of sunning give one a tanned, healthy look, but it helps to form vitamin D in the body. Too much exposure, on the other hand, will form a toxic substance."

"The best tan is achieved by short day-to-day periods of exposure, rather than by longer weekend-by-weekend periods," Dr. Heustis said.

"Repeated or so-called chronic over-exposure, over longer periods should be avoided to prevent premature aging of the skin. The incidence of skin cancer also is measurably greater among folks subjected to chronic over-exposure," he warned.

Suntan oils and lotions containing ultra-violet screening agents are helpful in protecting against the sun's rays. Limit the time of exposure to 15 minutes of sun bathing daily until your tan starts to deepen. Early morning and late afternoon are the safest times, when more ultra-violet light is blocked by the earth's atmosphere.

Homemade Beauty For Young Moderns

We forget there are such things as natural beauty aids to be found in the pantry, refrigerator, vegetable garden.

Books have been written on the subject and occasionally an old-fashioned beauty recipe is whispered along or handed down from mother to daughter.

Modern medicine takes the view that there could be something to old time formulas and witch doctor brews. Some new healing potions have been formulated by delving into old-wives tales.

A new book, "Natural Beauty Secrets," by Deborah Rutledge rounds up lots of these old ideas and recipes.

Some will be familiar to young people, the use of lemon on the elbows, cucumber juice on the face, but there are many more. A chapter, Pimples and Other Problems, contains recipes for minor blemishes that afflict some people at certain times. (Miss Rutledge points out that serious conditions, acne or eczema, require the advice of dermatologists.)

The pimple recipe goes like this: Mix equal parts of mutton tallow (pure lanolin) glycerin and castor oil. Melt it over high heat to blend, let it cool, and keep in a glass jar. It is applied to pimples until healed.

In a recipe where low heat is required, she advises the use of a double boiler. Enamel, china, glass or earthenware are better than metal utensils for mixing beauty aids.

Here's another pimple cure given to Miss Rutledge by a woman who got it from her grandmother:

Peel and cut up two or three onions. Cook the onions in lard until they are transparent. Let cool, put between pieces of cheese cloth, and apply to pimples. Leave on as a poultice.

She comments that old-fashioned brown or yellow laundry soap may bring results. This method is used by many old-timers today. The soap is applied to pimples and left on. Sometimes it will dry them. Sometimes it will bring them to a head. This was an old-fashioned remedy used for boils in grandma's day.

Blackheads plague youthful skins and Miss Rutledge suggests this old time meal wash as an excellent one for ridding the skin of the blemish.

Manistique Nines Advance In Escanaba Tournaments

Legion Chiefs Whip Powers In 9th Inning

The Manistique Chief saved their heroics for twilight Friday, scoring five runs in the top of the ninth inning to hand Powers-Spaulding a 7-6 defeat in the opening game of the American Legion district tournament at Al Ness Field.

The Chiefs met the Escanaba Cubs at 11 a.m. today with the loser scheduled to face Powers at 3 p.m.

Finals in the tournament are scheduled for 11 a.m. Sunday with the second game, if needed, set for 3 p.m.

With darkness closing in, Manistique parlayed three walks, two hits, a hit batsman and four Powers errors into the winning rally. Powers had taken a 6-2 lead through eight innings and appeared headed toward an easy victory when the roof fell in.

Gary Sample singled, stole second and third and scored on Larry Lambert's single. Mike Tuftnell doubled and Lambert scored on an error.

After two men went out, Tuftnell scored to close the gap to 6-5 as Bob Cowman, who was hit by a pitch, stole second. Walks to Larry Roberts and Donald Chartier loaded the bases and Cowman and Roberts scored on an error at shortstop.

Chartier, who came on to pitch for starter Cowman as Powers pushed four runs home in the seventh inning, retired the side in the ninth inning after a leadoff single by Bob Mastie.

Manistique opened the scoring in the first inning with a run without a hit, but Powers came back with a pair to take a 2-1 lead. Manistique tied it 2-2 in the top of the seventh, but Powers' four-run burst made it 6-2.

Mastie, Doug Benson and Dave Smith each had two hits for the winners. Doug Lacoursier, Don Whitens and Smith reshared the pitching chores.

Mets Leave Swoboda Alone, Left Fielder's Bat Responds

By The Associated Press
The New York Mets have quit messing around with Ron Swoboda, and now he's messing around with everyone else.

Swoboda, who complained last month that the Mets were restricting his effectiveness by playing him irregularly, hit a two-run homer that sealed the Mets' latest victory.

In New York's two previous games, both with San Francisco, Swoboda hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Mets a 3-2 victory — rapped three hits — and drove in three runs in their 14-3 triumph.

The 23-year-old slagger has been playing every day recently, which is what he felt he should have been doing the entire season.

"I've been messing around with my bat," Swoboda complained about six weeks ago. "They messed around with me at the end of last season, and they've been doing it again. If you have to sit around and not play for three days, you might as well quit."

"It's the young guys who are going to make this ball club. But how a young player supposed to learn when he's in and out? I've only batted against a couple of righties. You can't learn that way. If I have to be platooned, I'll look for something else to do."

The Giants and Dodgers wouldn't mind that at all. While the Mets remained one-half game out of eighth and moved to within one game of seventh, the Giants climbed to within two percentage points of first place in the National League by defeating Philadelphia 4-1 behind Gaylord Perry, who pitched a two-hitter and struck out 15.

Elsewhere in the NL, Houston defeated Pittsburgh 5-2, Cincinnati whipped Atlanta 8-2 and St. Louis knocked off Chicago 9-4. Swoboda's homer, off Claude Osteen, came in the eighth inning. The Mets also scored in the third on Ron Hunt's single. Bob Friend blanked the Dodgers on eight hits.

Little Leaguers Edge Escanaba, Face Marquette

It will be Manistique against Marquette for the Area Little League championship at 4 p.m. today at the Escanaba Little League field.

Manistique squeezed out a 3-2 victory over Escanaba in seven innings Friday after Marquette fought off Munising 5-4.

Escanaba and Marquette met at 2 p.m. in a consolation game. A two-out double by Terry Sample against the right field fence in the seventh inning powered Manistique past Escanaba. Sample's shot drove in John Gegrush from third base with the winning run.

Escanaba sent the game into extra innings in the sixth when Bill Skradski poled a home run over the center field fence with teammate Steve Sharkey aboard.

The blast wiped out a 2-0 Manistique lead taken in the fourth inning.

Skradski handled the mound chores for Escanaba, allowing only three hits, but five errors kept him in trouble.

Escanaba threatened to break the tie in the top of the seventh when Jeff Hiney stroked his second hit and moved to second on a sacrifice, but Manistique pitcher Ken Hartman got the next two hitters on infield bouncers.

Marquette slammed the door on a four-run Munising rally in the sixth inning, then rallied with two outs in their turn at bat.

Joe Borro's two out, two-strike single drove in the winning run for Marquette.

Pitcher Randy Fagerberg gave Marquette a 1-0 lead in the fourth inning with a bases-empty home run and the winners stretched it to 4-0 with three more runs in the fifth. Munising roared back with four runs in the top of the sixth, however, and had the bases loaded when the Marquette centerfielder made a shoestring catch of a line drive to choke off the rally. Dan McNally hurled the entire game for Munising and was the losing pitcher.

Snap Losing Streak

'Stormin Norman' Returns For Night, Tigers Triumph

CLEVELAND (AP) — He might not be "Stormin' Norman" Cash anymore, but the Detroit Tiger first baseman mustered more than enough thunder and lightning for the Cleveland Indians Friday night.

Cash, whose batting average hasn't come anywhere near .300 since he won the American League batting title in 1961, hit a grand slam homer and drove in two more runs with a walk and a sacrifice fly.

The Tigers' saddened by the news that interim Manager Bob Swift has a malignancy in a lung, snapped a six-game losing streak by clipping Cleveland 10-5.

Frank Skaff handled the Tigers Friday night, and will remain acting manager for a time. Swift entered a Detroit hospital July 14, suffering from food poisoning. Examinations disclosed the cancer.

Swift was filling in for Tiger Manager Charlie Dresen, who suffered a heart attack earlier in the year.

Cash connected with the bases loaded in the sixth inning and drove Indian starter, Gary Bell from the mound.

Detroit iced the game with three runs in the ninth.

Chuck Hinton drove in the first four Cleveland runs with a ground out in the third and a three-run homer in the seventh.

Tiger pitching, in a tailspin for nearly a week, gave up 12 hits. The Tigers managed only nine. Mickey Lolich was the winner, but needed help from Orlando Pena.

"Wert walked and Jim Northrup got all the way to second—Wert taking third on an error—Willie Horton walked to fill the bases and Cash blasted his 14th home run.

Lolich walked, Jake Wood walked and Northrup singled to load the bases in the seventh.

Cash then drew a walk to force in a run.

Cleveland got three in the seventh on Hinton's homer. In the ninth, Dick Tracewski singled, Northrup doubled and Horton walked to fill the bases. Cash hit a sacrifice fly. Bill Freehan drew a walk to fill the bases again and Stanley hit a sacrifice fly.

Ray Oyler doubled and brought Horton home. Leon Wagner opened the Indian ninth with a home run, but Pena put the rest of the side out in order, striking out Hinton and Rocky Colaninno.

Old Man Snead Rolls On, Continues To Lead PGA

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Swing- ing Sammy Snead is tickling the hearts of oldtimers, the world over with his youthful early footing in the PGA's Golden Anniversary Championship.

No longer The Slammer by his own admission, the 54-year-old West Virginian left behind him a field packed with youngsters who weren't born when Snead won his first golf championship.

Snead shot a 36-35-71 Friday for a 139 total and was the only one under par at the halfway mark of the tournament over the 7,180-yard, par 35-35-70 Firestone Country Club course.

Al Geiberger and Don January were one shot behind at 140. Limping along with a hip injury, Snead went to the practice tee after Friday's round to work on his theory that "the time to practice is when you're playing well."

Tommy Aaron, who was born the year Snead won his first tournament, the Oakland Open in 1937, walked past Snead, who kept in ending perfect shots down the practice fairway.

"No sense practicing next to him," said Aaron. "It only makes you look bad."

"You'd look like a diamond over here son," said Snead. "See that shot, that was a seven iron. You'd only need a nine to get that far."

How much has Snead lost on his shots off the tee as the years have piled up? "Twenty five yards on all the long shots," he said. "If you need two long shots to get to a hole, you're starting off with a 50-yard disadvantage. That's a lot of yardage and you have to make up for it with accuracy and putting."

Putting, however, is not one of Snead's strengths these days. "Age works on your nerves and putting is all nerves. I've thought about taking pills for the nerves but they take away your coordination and you can't play golf without coordination," he said.

Going into those final two rounds Snead also was trailed by Julius Boros at 141. Grouped at 143 were Gary Player, Doug Sanders, Jacky Cupit, Aaron, and Billy Farrell.

Jack Nicklaus, the Masters and British Open champion, was tied with those at 146. This group also included U.S. Open champion Billy Casper. Arnold Palmer was nine shots away with 148.

MOUNTAIN MIXTURE—In a scene slightly incongruous, a little Kirghizian girl plays in her toy auto near the tent-like home of her shepherd parents. This photo, from Soviet sources, illustrates the strange life of thousands of these shepherd families who drive their herds to mountain pastures near Issyk Kul Lake in Soviet Asia about 100 miles from the Chinese border. While costumes and their life are linked to the past, toys, evidently, are very modern.

MANISTIQUE Bigger Primary Vote Expected

A special proposal to raise the millage limitation in Schoolcraft County from 15 to 18 mills and proposals of the City of Manistique for charter amendments, and senior citizens housing property, will be on the ballots for the Aug. 2 primary.

The charter amendments will be voted only by city voters. One would remove a limitation on special assessments which provides the assessment can not exceed fifty per cent of the value of lot or land. Another would permit purchase by the city under title retaining contracts or issuance of obligations, provided that these be for not longer than six years or, in case of personal property, longer than the period of usefulness of the property.

The other city proposal is for conveying a 300 by 400-foot parcel northwesterly of and adjacent to the proposed new armory site for a senior citizens project. The transfer would be to the Manistique Housing commission.

The primary ballot will be for selection of candidates in the Nov. 8 general election. Nominations will be made for the offices of governor, U.S. senator to fill vacancy and for regular term, 11th district Congressman, 37th district state senator and 107th district state representative.

Seney will ballot for 108th state district representative and other areas of the county for 107th.

Leonard Shay of Germfask is unopposed on the Democratic ticket for the office of county road commissioner. There is no Republican candidate.

Township supervisors, clerks, treasurers, trustees, constable and three commissioners will be nominated. The committeemen would nominate a candidate on the township level in event a nominee were incapacitated.

Delegates to the Democratic and Republican county conventions are to be voted upon. City precincts will have three and townships two.

The millage proposal is to set the tax limitation at 18 mills for five years or until altered by vote of the people. All electors in the country are eligible to ballot on it.

The vote is expected to be higher this year than the 1965 votes in the last primary, due to nominations for township offices. City voters have four elections involved and those in townships, three.

Voters will ballot July 25 on proposals regarding school reorganization.

State Parks Use Increases

Newberry district State Parks show increases in both attendance and camp permits issued as of July 17, compared with last year. L. A. Bierlein Sr., district parks supervisor of the Michigan Conservation Department reports.

Attendance shows a 9 per cent increase and camp permits, 23 per cent increase over last year. Beautiful weather with little rain has provided fine camping and picnicking for motorists and local persons.

Two of the new parks, Fayette State Park and Muskallonge Lake State Park have shown the greatest percentage increase in camping and attendance. Muskallonge Lake had an 82 per cent increase in camper permits and Fayette a 92 per cent increase.

Labor's Newest Target-City Hall

NEW YORK (AP)—In the first six months of this year, unions hit the nation's city halls—labor's newest target—with at least 30 strikes. More are certain to follow.

Nearly two-thirds of the strikes were by teachers, and the rest involved welfare workers, firemen, policemen, doctors, nurses, hospital attendants, transit workers, and garbage collectors.

Last-minute settlements averted strikes in some cities, and another score of labor disputes are still in contention.

The scramble to organize the eight million employees of the states, counties and municipalities has made it the fastest growing area of union activity. Union membership in the past two years has grown to more than 536,000.

Officials Inexperienced

The new militancy has put the unions on collision course with public officials, mindful of near-indebted budgets and the anguished cries of taxpayers. The inexperience of public officials in facing unions across the bargaining table also has made for rough going at times.

In Atlanta, Ga., where 500 firemen walked out for three days in early June in a demand for higher wages and a shorter work week, Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. said: "This apparently is going to be a summer of discontent in the union field."

In Lansing, Mich., earlier this week, some 250 unionized city employees went out on strike, accusing the city of unethical labor practices. The workers, employed by the city's civic center, public service, parks and recreation and traffic departments, had won the right last year to be represented by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO.

The Lansing workers voted to return to work on Thursday and accept a three-cent-an-hour raise.

Ignore Laws

City employees in Dayton, Ohio, walked out Tuesday in defiance of a court order prohibiting the strike. Members of the union returned to work Wednesday after the City Council promised to reopen contract negotiations and to ignore state and city laws penalizing public employees who strike.

Some employees in Duluth, Minn., started a sit-down strike earlier this week in a wage dispute with the City Council. Talks were going on between union and city officials and the state labor mediator.

Unions representing 96,800 New York City employees, including policemen, firemen and sanitation workers, are bargaining for new contracts. They want wage increases as big as those won by the transit workers in the 12-day bus and subway strike in January.

Union leaders say they are unimpressed by the city's fiscal troubles. There has been talk of a strike by the sanitation workers.

What does a union offer a public employee that civil service doesn't?

Political Charges

"There is a strong feeling on the part of employees that they've got to have something to say about wages, hours and working conditions, and civil service has not given it to them," said Robert Hastings, assistant to the president of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, largest of the three national unions in the field.

"In Pennsylvania, in this day and age, every time there is a change of political parties there is a change in 13,000 jobs," he said.

Just a few years ago union activity by public employees, much less a strike, would have brought an outburst of indignation from politicians. Calvin Coolidge, when he put down the 1916 Boston police strike, said: "There is no right to strike against the public safety by anybody, anytime, anywhere."

"At one time," said Hastings, "the only way we could appear before a City Council was as private citizens. They wouldn't talk to us as a union. This seems to be changing substantially."

Prohibit Strikes

Sixteen states prohibit public employees from striking—Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Oregon, Wisconsin, Georgia, Hawaii, Nebraska, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas and Virginia.

Alabama, North Carolina and Georgia laws forbid employees from joining unions, and Virginia, in a legislative resolution, has declared it against public policy to recognize a union for public employees.

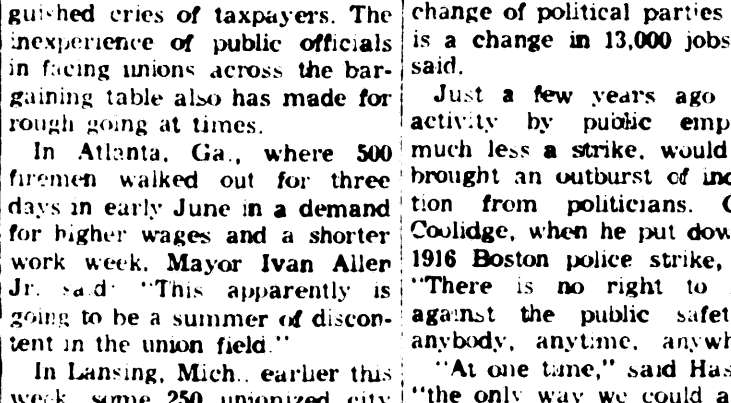

Such laws, however, are not always effective. New York, which has one of the toughest no-strike laws, has had more public service strikes than any other state.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

Now it's just an antique, a relic of a bygone era. Formerly it served a practical purpose, a special need. Today, Grandfather's horseless carriage is completely outmoded.

Some philosophies are also out of date. New ideas grip our minds and challenge the intellect. We would not want a "horse and buggy" philosophy in this modern world of growth and change.

Some things do not change, for they are eternal. For example, man's soul and his need of God. No modern invention can ever make God and the Church obsolete. Society is different today than it was in Grandfather's day, but man's spiritual needs are the same.

Discover the value of the timeless in the midst of time. Worship God in your church this week and find the eternal truth which spans the ages.
